Our YWAM family

As you may know we have great links with YWAM at the King's Lodge, Nuneaton. They have been involved in some of our youth events and were a real blessing particularly during lockdowns. They have also visited SCC many times over the years, getting involved in outreach etc. A group will be coming to visit Kent again from the 3rd to 22nd July, helping various churches (including ours) with youth and young adults events and providing support to churches in the area.

We are looking for somewhere for them to stay during this time, there are 3 women, one family with a 6 month old baby and one family with 3 girls. They don't need to all stay in one place but it would be very helpful if we could house them all locally. They will be out and about most days but need a place to stay and probably some meals or the use of a kitchen to cater for themselves.

If you are able to help out please speak to me ASAP
Many thanks. Georgina

Could you help with Sound on a Sunday?

Full training given, so no previous experience needed.

We'd love to build up a good sized team to support Tom in this and share in this really vital ministry.

Once trained, if you could only offer to do one Sunday every month or every 6 weeks, this would still make a huge difference.

Speak to Tom or email him on tom.crocombe@stalphegeseasalter.org if you'd like to know more about what's involved.

Help please!

I need plastic milk carton lids and tissue boxes or equivalent sized boxes, for an activity for our next Grandchildren session on 2nd July.

Do please let me know if you are able to help me with this.

Many thanks Lisé

Holding On Letting Go

Yay! and Pray

This week we are ...

Celebrating:

- Megan, Hannah and Joel who are joining the music worship team, please pray for them as they offer this ministry to us.
- Giving thanks for the new friendships being made at the Open Door Community Hub, and for the team who serve there.

Praying for:

- Ordinations next weekend, especially for Claudette Gayle our new Curate, and for Jack Greenhalf as he is priested.
- AV support for Tom - we really need folk who would be willing to learn how to operate the sound. At the moment this is mainly falling on Tom's shoulders. It could be as little or often as you feel able to offer - that would still help.

This is a happy time for our theological college. We have returned to face-to-face teaching and, at the same time, expanded our online provision. These days, we're meeting a need for which we've prayed rather mightily. Enthusiasm for learning more about Christian faith, in general, and for studying theology, in particular, is on the rise. You wouldn't believe it from the media, perhaps, but it's true nonetheless.

This growing theological interest needs our best response. St Augustine's is delighted to offer our Certificate in Theology, Ministry and Mission, a course accredited by the University of Durham and available in both face-to-face and online forms. The Certificate requires only some enthusiasm, no previous knowledge of theology. Since starting a program of study is a significant step, to help anyone wishing to stick a toe in rather than jump head-first, we offer a 'taster' module in Biblical Studies. Students take this initial course, at a very reasonable price, and with some dedicated tutorial support. Having completed the taster module, students then decide if they want to continue – and we're delighted with how many do. St Augustine's also has a bursary fund to help those with keen minds but blunted finances.

St Augustine's provides a diverse and supportive learning community that places the Christian formation and educational growth of its students at the core of its vision and mission.
